

Later

I didn't want Mum to let Kip off the lead and I walked off when she said she was going to.

I didn't want to be there when disaster struck! But Linda was right. Kip stayed right beside us when he was off the lead.

Mum called me over and said it was OK. I walked with Mum and Kip walked really near us.

Every time a dog came near, he ran back to us until he was sure it was friendly.

June 7th

Today we took Kip into the library to get used to meeting people.

Everyone made a real fuss of him – and guess who was there? You guessed it: Matt!
